

"OUR TURN NEXT" IF GERMANS WIN, SAYS J. R. DREXEL

American Back From Europe Declares Kaiser Has Army of 300,000 in U. S. Tells of Atrocities.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—"Germany has 300,000 officers and men in this country already, and if she wins the present war, it will be our turn next."

This statement was made by John R. Drexel, of this city and formerly of Philadelphia, when he returned from Europe last night on the White Star liner Adriatic. He has spent most of the last two months in Vichy, France, and declared he had a splendid opportunity to see the German fighting machine at work.

It is a wonderful machine, and is being very cleverly handled by the most astute group of men in the world, the German General Staff," he continued. "It is up to this Government to take immediate steps to increase the strength of our standing army and to double our fleet."

"My brother, Anthony J. Drexel, is fighting with a French regiment. He was in London two days before I left, having brought home Lady Sarah Wilson, whose husband had been killed at the Aisne. Lady Sarah up to that time had been with the Red Cross. Her husband's death and the terrible weather on the Continent prostrated her."

"You are going to hear of more atrocities before this war is over, and some of them will be more horrible than any ever imagined. While in Vichy a wounded German soldier was brought into the hospital. In his pocket was the hand of a woman, with four valuable rings still on the fingers."

ARRESTED AT MAN'S HEARING While attending the hearing of a man charged with robbing grocery stores in South Philadelphia, George Allen, 22 years old, 27th and Federal streets, was arrested today charged with being an accomplice. Lawrence Tierney, 24 years old, 2015 Sidel street, was the man being tried.

FUNERAL OF J. P. MORRIS The funeral of James P. Morris, a retired hotel man, who died Wednesday from an attack of heart disease, was held this morning from St. John's Catholic Church, 13th below Market street. Mr. Morris was 70 years old and for many years was connected with the Continental Hotel, the Hingham and the Broad House. He made his home at 218 South 13th street.
